THIRD PEACE CONFERENCE SUGGESTED

To Continue Work Done At Hague In 1899, 1907

PETITION TO QUEEN OF NETHERLANDS

Hankow, October 7.

THE DUTCH NATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE INTERNATIONAL PEACE CAMPAIGN has proposed, in a petition to the Queen of the Netherlands, the calling of a Third Peace Conference to continue the work of the Peace Conference held at The Hague in 1899 and 1907, according to information received by the China Branch of the International Peace Campaign.

The text of the petition the Dutch Committee has addressed to Her Majesty is as follows:—

"The Dutch Committee of the International Peace Campaign, acting in the name of its adherent organisations, the Central Union of Dutch Consumers' Co-operatives, the Dutch Federation of Trade Unions, the Dutch Trades Council and the Dutch branch of the Theosophical Union, humbly submit:

"That in spite of the obligations of the Briand-Kellogg Pact, facts show that war is being employed

"Doomed Battalion" Case Settled

Hankow, October 7.

Following several weeks' conversations through the good offices of Mr. Yu Ya-ching, the differences between the "Doomed Battalion" and the Shanghai Municipal Council, arising out of a "riot" on August 12 last, has been satisfactorily settled, according to a message from Shanghai.

On behalf of the Shanghai Municipal Council, the Chairman, Mr. C. S. Franklin, has written to the Chinese Ratepayers' Association expressing his regrets for the unfortunate incident, and enclosed a sum of $3,000 as compensation for the family of each of the three Chinese soldiers killed in a brawl with the Russian Volunteer Corps.

Colonel Hsien Chin-yuan and thirteen officers of the Battalion, who were removed from the concentration camp shortly after the incident, have been escorted back to rejoin their men this afternoon.—Central News and Reuter.

"IN THE END I SUPPOSE I KILLED HER"

Dramatic Confession Heard In Shanghai Murder Case

Shanghai, October 7.

"I KILLED HER BECAUSE OF A COUPLE OF EGGS. She bought eight bad eggs and scolded me for it. We quarrelled and fought and in the end I suppose I killed her."

This dramatic confession was made in the Chinese First Special District Court before the Judge this morning by Yu Yeh-yuen, aged 21 years, cookboy employed by Captain H. M. Smyth, Deputy Commissioner of the Shanghai Municipal Police.

Yu Yeh-yuen faced a charge of the murder of Miss Margaret Wexler, 21-year-old Russian, in a flat on the fifth floor of the east wing of Broadway Mansions, where Captain Smyth lived.

Yu was arrested by the Shanghai Municipal Police in Jessfield village, a Japanese controlled area outside the International Settlement, and showed no signs of nervousness when questioned.

The prosecuting advocate in presenting the case to the Judge said that repeated scoldings from Miss Wexler, the final one concerning eggs, led to a scuffle in which the accused, it was alleged, hit Miss Wexler, with a beer bottle.

The accused then scrawled on a piece of paper in Chinese, "If you succeed in injuring others you injure yourself," and then decamped. It was earlier reported that Miss Wexler was killed by first being struck on the head with a bottle and then smothered with a heavy blanket.

The accused is a Ningponese who had been employed for about ten months by Captain Smyth, the tenant of the flat where the young woman was found murdered.

An inquest was held by the Chinese Court Procurator at the Public Mortuary, Kailchow Road. The Procurator rendered a verdict that Miss Wexler's death was "due to injuries received."

HITLER INJURED

Struck In Face By Bouquet

Berlin, Oct. 7.

It is stated that Chancellor Hitler was slightly injured today while driving through the fourth zone of occupation when a bouquet of flowers was thrown by an enthusiastic spectator and struck him in the face.

Measures have been taken to prevent the possibility of a recurrence of such an incident.

Orders have been given that in future no bouquet will be allowed to carry flowers when the Fuehrer drives past. The duty is made incumbent on all members of the Nationalist Party to see that these orders are strictly obeyed and to confiscate any flowers which may be carried in defiance of them.—Transocean.

Mr. Shields Elected To Council

GENERAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE NOMINEE

Mr. A. L. Shields was unanimously elected as representative of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce on the Legislative Council at a meeting held at the offices of the Chamber.

The Chairman, Mr. Shields, said that the election was necessitated by the resignation of Mr. M. T. Johnson, who intimated that he would not be returning permanently to the Colony. On behalf of the General Committee a letter had been addressed to Mr. Johnson thanking him for his services both as Chairman and the representative of the Chamber on the Legislative Council, and he was sure this would have the approval of the members of the Chamber (Applause).

Continuing, the Chairman said that only one nomination had been received during the prescribed period.

SUFFICIENT COURAGE
Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson said he was sure that all members of the Chamber would wish to be associated with what the Chairman had said with regard to Mr. Johnson. His departure was viewed with great regret.

In proposing that Mr. A. L. Shields be nominated for appointment as the representative of the Hongkong General Chamber of Commerce on the Legislative Council, Mr. Paterson remarked that Mr. Shields had already acted on the Council and knew what it involved. He still had sufficient courage to wish to go on with it.—(Continued on Back Page)

BRILLIANT BALL HELD IN AID OF WAR RELIEF

Elite In Full Force At Hongkong Hotel

MAGNIFICENT SUCCESS

By "Rosette"

A CEASELESS STREAM OF PRIVATE CARS, public vehicles and taxis, the continual passage of brilliantly-robed women and immaculately-groomed men, the blaze of electric lights everywhere, an atmosphere of carnival—small wonder that casual passers-by in the vicinity of the Hongkong Hotel last night stopped, firstly to look, then to stare, and finally to try and recollect what this occasion was that was bringing out in full force the most elite and distinguished in Hongkong.

And indeed the surprise of the man in the street at what little he could see was not remarkable when it is recorded that the long-awaited Charity Ball in aid of war relief, of which the scenes described above represented only the beginning, turned out in actuality to be the magnificent success it was in anticipation.

The constituents of success in a function of this scale are hard to describe. Contributory circumstances were the rank and position of the people who attended, the untiring and thorough work of preparation that had been put in, not to mention the indefatigable labour of the organisers that went on throughout the evening, the quality of the music and the dance floor, and the tasteful decorations of the Grill-room and the Jacobean Room.

But it is safe to say that the main contribution was the mannequin parade, a full description of which appears on page 7. This item unquestionably put the assembly in the best of humours and removed any possibility there may have been of the slackening of the environment of conviviality.

The organisers, the Hongkong Women's National Relief Association, are to be congratulated on the great work they have done. No idea of the total receipts, which were greatly augmented by the many generous sums paid for programmes and flowers, could be as—(Continued on Back Page)

FIGHTING ON ALL FRONTS IN SHANSI

Chinese Recapture Yusiang In Smashing Attack

JAPANESE RETREAT TO HENGLINGKWAN

Shan, October 7.

Military dispatches from Shansi reveal bitter fighting on various fronts in the province.

In a smashing attack, Chinese forces recaptured Yusiang, in south-western Shansi. The Japanese suffered heavy casualties and fled in great confusion with the Chinese in hot pursuit.

On the same day, the Chinese in south Shansi started a fierce attack on the Japanese at Changtchen, northeast of Pinglu. The Japanese, hiding behind strong defence works, offered stubborn resistance. Fighting of great ferocity is still in progress.

On the Kaolochen sector, east of Changtchen and northwest of Yuanku, the Chinese are counter-attacking the invaders. Unable to withstand the violent Chinese assault, the enemy have started to retreat to Henglingkwan in the vicinity and to the north-east.

The Japanese at Changtchen, in the vicinity of Linfen, were attacked by the Chinese on Oct. 3. In a two-hour engagement, scores of the enemy were killed.

In west Shansi, the Chinese and Japanese forces are pitted against each other at Lishih. Sporadic fighting took place along the Changyang-Lishih highway occasionally.

Over 5,000 Japanese soldiers have been rushed to northern Shansi from Hopei to reinforce their comrades at Taihsien and Shohsien. Observers believe that with the arrival of reinforcements the Japanese are preparing for a drive on Ningwu, south of Shohsien.—Central News.

Chinese Jumps Into Harbour

FERRY SERVICE STOPS FOR TEN MINUTES

Although the ferry was delayed for well over ten minutes and although strenuous efforts were made to save him, a third-class Chinese passenger on the Shamshui Ferry who had jumped into the harbour shortly after 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning disappeared in the waters of the harbour.

The man was noticed suddenly to jump over the rails and immediately a cry was raised "Ko Meng!" ("Save Life!"). Engines were immediately stopped and lifebuoys were thrown over the side of the ferry as he was seen to come to the surface.

In view of the rough state of the water, nobody attempted to dive to the fellow's rescue and he sank and disappeared soon afterwards.

The ferry remained in the vicinity a little while longer, but, as there was no trace of the missing man, it proceeded on its run.

POSSIBLE CHOICE

HERR HITLER TO MEDIATE IN CHINA?

Tokyo, Oct. 7.

A spokesman of the Japanese Foreign Office to-day stated that he had no information about a report that Herr Hitler was considering an approach to Britain and possibly the United States, after the fall of Hankow, in regard to the possibility of mediation in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The spokesman declared that Germany was not likely to approach any country before sounding the Japanese Government's views and intend to adhere to the declaration of January 15.

"Moreover, mediation will not be necessary as Chiang Kai-shek's regime will become a mere local government," he declared.

The spokesman said that no peace was possible as long as Chiang Kai-shek's regime remains.—Reuter.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

The Double Tenth

ON MONDAY, THE DOUBLE TENTH, the National Festival of the Chinese Republic, the usual celebration will take place in the Catholic Cathedral at 5 p.m. A sermon will be preached in Chinese, and it will be followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, with the singing of the Te Deum, in thanksgiving for all the graces of the past year. During war time naturally the ceremony takes on the special character of prayer for the needs of China. The war will be in everyone's minds on the National Festival and all will certainly pray that peace may be restored to the country during the coming year.

ST. FRANCIS BORGIA CAPTAIN MCCARTHY

The Double Tenth falls on the feast of a saint who did much to redeem a name that is well known to enemies of the Catholic Church. The crimes of the Borgias have without doubt been enormously exaggerated, but it is certain that their record has sullied the annals of the Church.

Yet within less than ten years of the death of Pope Alexander VI, the best known of the unworthy members of the family, there was born Francis Borgia who was to be universally recognised, and afterwards officially honoured, as a saint.

Francis Borgia was Duke of Gandia and one of the leading noblemen of Spain. He was a close friend of the Emperor Charles V and held for several years the important office of Viceroy of Catalonia. During the years that he spent as a layman, married, occupied with the Court and the castle, he lived a most exemplary life and greatly influenced all those with whom he came in contact.

It was after the death of his wife that he found it possible to renounce his secular duties and devote himself completely to the service of God. He joined the recently-founded Society of Jesus and eventually became its third General.

His organising power left a considerable mark on the development of the Society. He was a man of very wide culture, and, among other things, an accomplished musician. He composed music of considerable merit, and some of his religious compositions are still sung by Spanish and Italian choirs.

GOOD KING WENCESLAUS

The name of "Good King Wenceslaus" who is not always recognised as St. Wenceslaus, is usually only heard at Christmas time, but it was heard in unusual circumstances recently. In the midst of the Czechoslovakian crisis, on the day before the Munich pact, it was mentioned that work was suspended in Prague—because it was the Feast of St. Wenceslaus.

This saint, though almost a legendary figure to the people of other races, is a very real person to the Czechs, for he is their patron and one of their national heroes. He lived at a very difficult time. He was Duke (there is some doubt about his title of King) of Bohemia in the tenth century, less than four hundred years after the Czechs had got control of the country.

His father was a Christian and his mother a pagan. His father had followed a policy of friendship with Germany but he died young, and his wife, Dragomir, became regent and began to turn the country away from Christianity and from Germany. Wenceslaus intervened, seized the reins of government from his mother and saved the country for Christianity.

His rule brought happiness to his country, but his mother continually plotted against him, and finally induced her younger son to murder him, after he had reigned for seven years.

Though he is generally represented as an elderly man he died in the early thirties. His kindness of heart was extreme and though his policy encountered much opposition during his lifetime he was greatly honoured after his death and his memory is held in great affection by the Czechs.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hong Kong
Subject—Are Sin, Disease and Death real?

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches, to-morrow, October 9 will be "Are Sin, Disease and Death real?"
The Golden Text will be "I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the Lord. (Jeremiah 30:17)

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible: "And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy; and they sought means to bring him in, to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, Why reason ye in your hearts? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy) I say unto thee, Arise. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. (Luke 5: 18-20, 22, 24, 25)

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. "Unless an ill is rightly met and fairly overcome by Truth, the ill is never conquered. If God destroys not sin, sickness, and death, they are not destroyed in the mind of mortals, but seem to this so-called mind to be immortal. If God heals not the sick, they are not healed, for no lesser power equals the infinite All-power. but God, Truth, Life, Love, does heal the sick through the prayer of the righteous. God is not the author of mortal discords. Therefore we accept the conclusion that discords have only a fabulous existence, are mortal beliefs which divine Truth and Love destroy. (page 231)

SMART MAN!

he uses Anzora

A very smart idea! For a little Anzora used on the hair in the morning will keep it tidy until bedtime. And a neat appearance is an asset, socially or in business. There is no other hair fixative as good as Anzora—for more than thirty years it has been supreme. And it suits every head. Anzora Cream for greasy scalps, Anzora Viola for dry scalps and Anzora Brilliance if you prefer glossiness.

Key Buildings of the New York World's Fair

Artist's sketch of the 200-foot Perisphere, within which visitors to the New York World's Fair of 1939 will view, from a revolving platform suspended in mid-air, a dramatization of the World of Tomorrow. Clusters of fountains will screen the piers supporting the Sphere so that the great ball will appear to be poised on jets of water. The 700-foot triangular Trylon at the left—a unique architectural form—will serve as a Fair beacon and broadcasting tower.

THE SERVICES

ROYAL NAVY

LAUNCH OF THE JERSEY

The destroyer Jersey was launched recently at the shipyard of J. Samuel White and Co., Limited, Cowes. After a religious service conducted by the Rev. Canon Balleine, the naming ceremony was performed by Mrs. Coutanche, wife of the Ballif of Jersey.

The new vessel is the second of the Javelin class of destroyers, authorized in 1936, the first, H.M.S. Jervis, having been launched on the Tyne on September 9. The displacement will be about 1,690 tons, and the main armament will include 4.7in guns.

The name of Jersey appears to have been out of use in the Royal Navy since 1780. It was first borne by a 40-gun ship, built in 1654, which took part in the wars with the Dutch and in operations against Algerine corsairs.

A later Jersey, of 48 guns, was commanded from 1708 by Admiral Vernon, who made certain captures in her. There was also a Jersey of 50 guns in the fleet of Admiral Boscawen in 1759, when he engaged and defeated the fleet of M. de la Clue off Lagos.

COMMANDER FOR AUSTRALIA

Commander E. M. Eses, after two years in the Operations Division at the Admiralty, is proceeding to Australia to become executive officer of the Commonwealth Naval Depot at Flinders, Melbourne.

PROVISION ALLOWANCES INCREASED

Revised issuing prices for service provisions which are to come into force on October 1 show alterations in the prices of several items, the more important being increases for frozen and preserved meats, butter and jams, and decreases for tea and rice.

Provision allowances have been increased by 1d. a day to the following: Officers, 3s. a day; men, 2s. 3d. a day; Shore Wireless Service, 1s. 9d. a day. Leave allowance has been increased from 2s. 2d. to 2s. 3d. a day.

THE ARMY

NEW APPOINTMENTS

The following officers have taken up new appointments:—

Brigadier H. G. Howson, M.C., T.D., from the 71st (West Riding) Field Brigade, R.A., to command the artillery, of the 49 Division at York.

Brigadier G. W. Sutton, D.S.O., T.D., late 8th Battalion, The Lancashire Fusiliers, to command the 125th (L.F.) Infantry Brigade at Bury.

Brigadier J. T. W. Reeve, D.S.O., from the 1st Battalion, The Rifle Brigade, to command the Hongkong Infantry Brigade.

Brigadier M. D. Gambier-Parry, M.C., from the War Office, to command the Malaya Infantry Brigade.

The Rev. E. H. Thorold, C.B., C.B.E., completes his tenure as Chaplain-General to the Forces and begins a year's extension in the 10th Div. War Office.

Major-General R. N. O'Connor, D.S.O., M.C., from the 1st Battalion, The Buffs, to command the 1st (West) Division at Salisbury.

NAMING OF LOCOMOTIVE

The L.N.E.R. locomotive No. 4806 was named "The Green Howard" at Richmond Station, Yorks, recently by Major-General H. E. Franklin, who was recently appointed Officer Commanding Catterick Garrison. After Major-General Franklin had inspected a guard of honour commanded by Captain Nash, Sir Murrrough Wilson, deputy chairman of the L.N.E.R., and Mr. C. M. Jenkin Jones, Divisional General Manager, made brief speeches, the latter promising that the engine should bring home the 1st Battalion of the regiment when it returned.

Major-General Franklin named the locomotive by breaking a bottle of champagne against it. He presented regimental badges to Driver, Raine and Fireman Newton, and Sir Murrrough Wilson presented mementoes of the occasion to the officers' and sergeants' messes.

ROYAL AIR FORCE

NEW OBSERVERS' SCHOOL No. 2 Air Observers' School will form at Acklington, Morpeth, Northumberland, on November 15, on which date it will be placed in the Training Command in No. 25 (Armament) Group.

The school will move in the summer of 1939 to Pembrey, Carmarthenshire, where a new training camp is being erected at a cost of about £213,500. Acklington will then resume its present function as No. 7, Armament Training Station.

SUB-DEPOT COMMAND

Squadron Leader W. P. J. Thomson, promoted on August 1, has been appointed in command of the Recruits' Sub-Depot at Scampton, Lincoln.

CIVIL FLYING POSTS

In order to assist R.A.F. officers and airman pilots who are contemplating taking up civil flying posts when they leave the Service, a scheme has been established whereby pupils who satisfactorily pass the short navigation course at Manston or the general reconnaissance course at Thorney Island will be exempted from taking the greater part of the examination for the 2nd class civil aircraft navigator's licence.

They must obtain not less than 60 per cent. of marks in the following six subjects of the R.A.F. examination: D.R., navigation, maps, and charts, compasses, meteorology, instruments and mathematics—and not less than 70 per cent. in the aggregate.

As a temporary measure the scheme will also apply to the R.A.F. courses held at Air Service Training, Limited, and the Imperial School of Air Navigation after May 24, 1938.

FRENCH ARMY CHIEF JOINS CZECHS

"Politicians may betray their friends, a soldier keeps his word of honour."

So General Faucher (above), Chief of the French Military Mission in Prague, has written to General Syrový, the new Czech Premier, and Acting President in a letter putting himself at the disposal of the Czech Defence Forces and asking for Czech citizenship.

He has sent his resignation to the French Government and asked to be relieved of his duties, at the same time returning all his French decorations.

In the presence of the French Minister in Prague, he told Dr. Benes, who has just resigned as president: "Sir, I am ashamed of being a Frenchman; I assure you here and now that I shall never return again to my native country."

THURSDAY'S HEALTH

THE GOLDWYN FOLLIES

All the greatest entertainers of the stage, screen, radio, dance and grand opera put on one of the greatest shows ever seen in Samuel Goldwyn's technicolor screen musical, "The Goldwyn Follies," which opens to-day at the King's Theatre.

Produced on a magnificent scale this most ambitious of Goldwyn's screen ventures does great credit to the name it bears.

The cast is headed by Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, radio's No. 1 stars, Adolphe Menjou, The Ritz Brothers, Zorina, the beautiful young premiere ballerina of the Ballet Russe, Kenny Baker, Helen Jepson, Metropolitan opera star, Andrea Leeds, Phil Baker, Ella Logan, Bobby Clark, Jerome Cowan, the American Ballet of the Metropolitan Opera and the gorgeous Goldwyn Girls.

NORTHWEST PASSAGE

Taylor, Tracy And Beery

Kenneth Roberts, author of "Northwest Passage," just won't be a picture person. M-G-M made him a characteristically tempting offer to come to Hollywood and write a story for them. Roberts likes his home at Kennebunk Beach. Offered to do the story there for half the original offer, but M-G-M wouldn't have it that way.

That leaves Roberts still a writer, though of course the fact of Robert Taylor, Spencer Tracy and Wallace Beery starring in Northwest Passage makes him half a picture person despite all.

GETS OWN BACK

Broderick Crawford's been getting his own back on Hollywood. When Crawford went off unsung last year to star on Broadway in "Of Mice and Men."

Paramount got a knock-out shock when Crawford turned down their good offer of a thousand dollars a week.

Crawford's reason: he just wanted to go on touring in "Of Mice and Men."

The Japanese have established an air base at Sancho Island, Namo and Wanshan Islands being vulnerable to attacks were converted into stations for the Japanese navy air force.

Customs And Observances In Business And Society

The Mid-Autumn Festival, or the Moon Festival, will again be enthusiastically celebrated by the Chinese community to-day. According to the lunar calendar, this festival falls on the 15th day of the Eighth Moon, when the moon is supposed to enjoy her fullest brilliance and grandeur. Lanterns of all designs and colours will be displayed by almost every Chinese household, and this is why the festival has become known as the "Feast of Lanterns" to some people.

The Chinese have a custom of settling accounts at each festival, and many are the financial exchanges taking place to-day. Most of the big Chinese firms hold dinner parties which are attended by their entire staff.

In Chinese homes, feasts are held in the courtyards late in the evening. Tables are laden with all varieties of round fruits which symbolise the moon and family unity. Moon cakes are, however, the distinctive offering. To meet the demand, local Chinese restaurants have been kept busy for weeks making these cakes. There is also much interchange of presents of moon cakes and fruits between relatives and friends, which leads to great activity in society.

On account of the hostilities, Hongkong people are not planning elaborate observances during the time of emergency. The public has been exhorted to spend less money on moon cakes and offerings, and to donate the money thus saved to the nation's war chest.—T. S. M.

GOVERNOR VISITS SCHOOL

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, accompanied by the acting Director of Education, Mr. C. G. Solis, paid an informal visit to the Diocesan Boys' School yesterday morning. His Excellency was present at the Assembly, later being conducted over the school by the Headmaster, Rev. C.B.R. Sargent.

Within the past three months, a sum of $3,000,000 agrarian loan, issued by the Bank of Canton, has been loaned. The total amount of loan fixed was to be $3,000,000, but in view of the need of day-to-day manager of the bank has decided to increase the loan.

STAR DUST

M-G-M will team Hedy LaMarr with Clark Gable in New Orleans. That's the story for which they had thought of Mae West as Gable's co-star.

Frank Capra's next picture may not be Chopin after all. He has another story called A Gentleman from Montana. Either this, with Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur, or Chopin with Boyer and Dietrich, will go into production during September.

Madeleine Carroll's contract with Walter Wanger has expired. In America now, to decide her future plans, she is reported to have said there is no chance of her working in England because of the tax situation.

Cecil B. De Mille has chosen Joel McCrea as the star of his next epic, Union Pacific. Claudette Colbert has been announced as the co-star, with Bob Burns and Akim Tamiroff in the cast.

Radio have bought Booth Tarkington's story, "Little Orvie," as the first vehicle for their boy-star, Peter Holden, when he finishes the run of "On Borrowed Time" on Broadway.

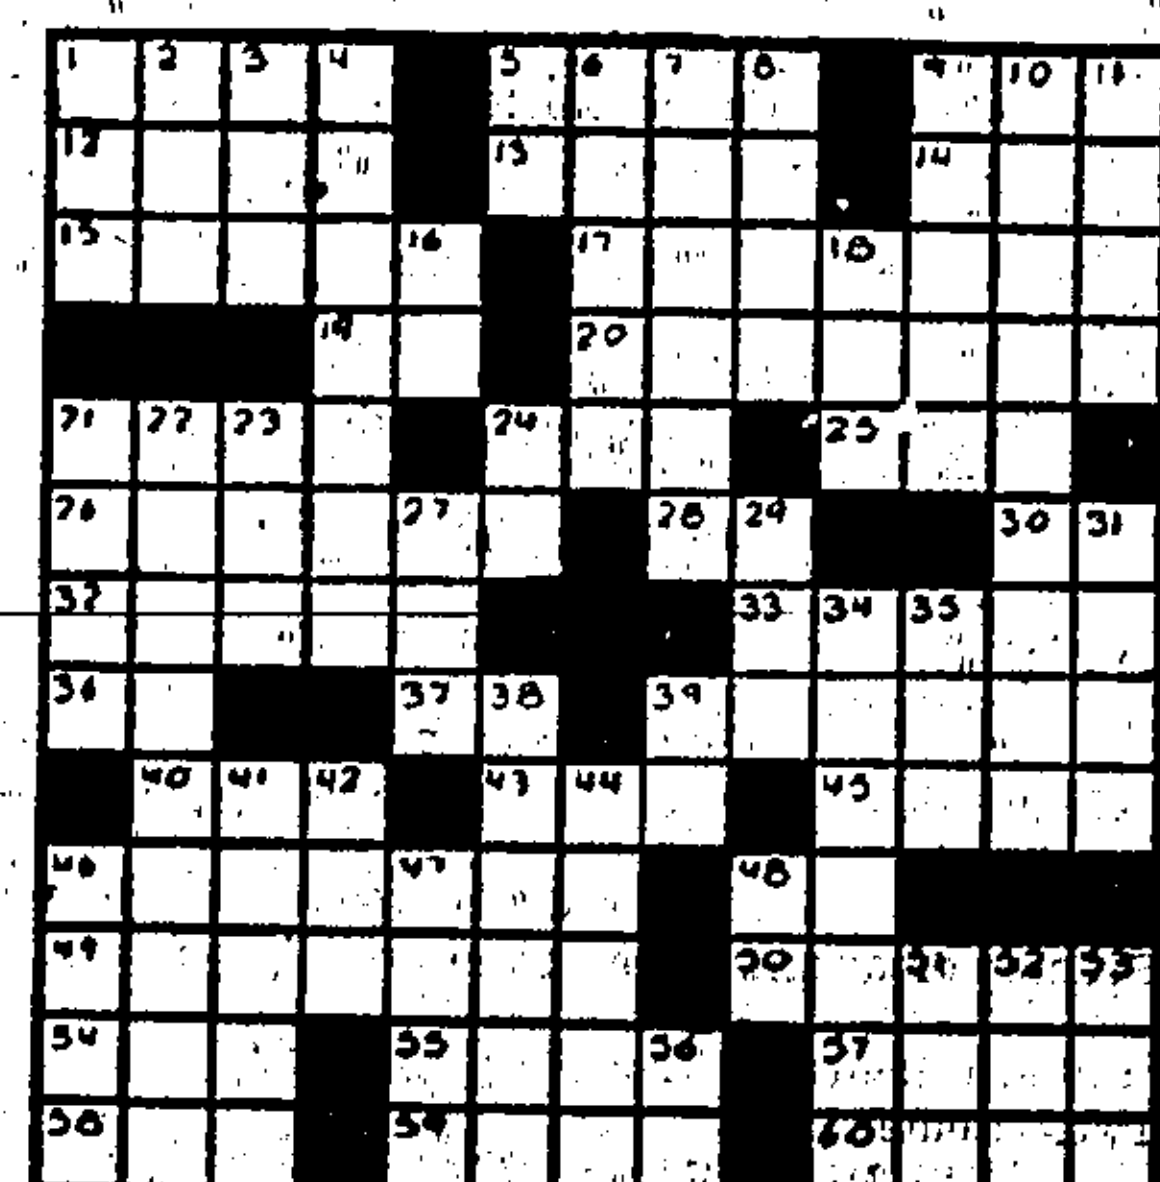

Olympe Bradna has three pictures lined up for her at Paramount. First will be Follow the Sun, with Bing Crosby, then Say It in French, to be followed by Air Raid.

Records of Hollywood's Central Casting Bureau show that for a recent period of ninety days hardly any extras over the age of thirty-five were wanted.

COMMONS GIVE GOVERNMENT CONFIDENCE VOTE

Prime Minister Replies To Opposition

London, October 7.
The vote of confidence in the Government for the part it played in arranging the Munich Agreement and preventing an outbreak of war in Europe was carried yesterday by an immense majority—144 members voted against the motion and 366 for it. A Labour amendment to the Government's original motion of confidence was defeated by 369 votes to 150.

Winding up the debate on the international situation, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, said:—

"Since I went to Berchtesgaden I have received 20,000 letters and telegrams. I have been able to look at only very few of them, but I have seen enough to know that the people who wrote them did not feel that they had a case—the prevention of the Sudeten joining Germany—over which they should go to war.

"That is an answer to those who said that I should have told Germany weeks ago that if her army crossed the Czech border we would go to war with her.

"We had no treaty obligations and no legal liabilities in Czechoslovakia.

"There was also the matter of the British Empire. Do critics always remember that the Dominions are affected by the issues of peace or war. They have a right to be consulted before I take steps which might have incalculable consequences to them.

"Supposing France was under treaty obligations to the Czechs and supposing France had gone to her assistance by virtue of that treaty, were we to say that we would not go to the assistance of France if in consequence of her support she became involved with Germany? We should have been false to our obligations.

"Therefore it would not have been enough to tell Czechoslovakia we would have nothing to do with her. It would have been necessary for France to say that also.

"To accuse us of a betrayal because of the advice we gave the Czechs is simply preposterous.

NEW LIFE AS NEW STATE

"What we did was to save her from annihilation and gave her a chance of a new life as a new State, which, even if it involved the loss of territory and fortifications, would perhaps enable her to enjoy and develop a future national existence in neutrality and security comparable to that of Switzerland.

"Therefore I think that the Government deserves the approval of the House for the conduct which saved Czechoslovakia from destruction and Europe from an armed-don.

"I do not want a general election now. I do not want to capitalise on the feeling of general thankfulness and relief for the sake of some temporary party advantage." Mr. Chamberlain said.

PACT WITH GERMANY

Referring to the pact with Germany Mr. Chamberlain stated that rumours that the agreement was designed by Herr Hitler to induce Great Britain to relinquish some of her present obligations showed how far some people could be carried by prejudice.

"I drew the document up myself. It was not drawn up by Herr Hitler," he declared.

"It seems to me that the strongest argument against the inevitability of war is found in the universal aversion of the people themselves and their hatred of the thought of starting to kill one another again.

"What is the alternative to this black and barren policy of the inevitability of war? In my view we should all seek, with all the means in our power, to avoid war, by discussions carried on in a spirit of friendly collaboration and goodwill."—Reuter.

Hitler's Wire Stirs Paris

FLANDIN TO ANSWER IN PARLIAMENT

Paris, Oct. 7.

A telegram sent on October 2 by Herr Hitler to M. Pierre Flandin, the Right Wing leader, caused something of a sensation when it was read to the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber by a Socialist deputy yesterday.

The message, which was in reply to one sent by M. Flandin to Herr Hitler, read:

"I sincerely thank you for the friendly congratulations you sent me and I give you assurances of my grateful sentiments for the energetic efforts you are making for an entente and complete collaboration between France and Germany.

"I have followed them with sincere interest and trust that they may have wider results."

M. Flandin stated that he wished to say nothing before the Committee, but was willing to reply to Parliament regarding the issues involved in the message.—Reuter.

FUEHRER IN ZONE TWO

Berlin, Oct. 7.

Herr Hitler, while his armies marched into the fourth zone, yesterday paid his third visit to the Sudeten areas and made a triumphant drive through that part of northern Bohemia known as Zone Two.—Reuter.

PARIS DEMOBILISATION

Paris, Oct. 7.

All reservists who were called up in September will be demobilised on October 11.—Reuter.

CZECHS DISARM

Prague, Oct. 6.

The immediate demobilisation of two classes of troops has been announced. Other classes will be demobilised progressively.—Reuter.

HUNGARIAN FLAG FLYING

Prague, Oct. 6.

The Hungarian flag is being flown from the municipal buildings on the Czech side of the Danube at the town of Komarom, which is partly Hungarian and partly Czech.

The bridges joining the two halves of the town have been opened to traffic and thousands of Hungarians are pouring into Komarom to fraternise with their brethren on the Czech side.

It is reliably reported that the Czech troops are withdrawing. It is expected that a commission will be set up to-morrow to decide when and where and in what circumstances the plebiscite will take place to see which areas will go to Hungary.—Reuter.

BRITISH HELP FOR CHINA

Government States Its Attitude

London, Oct. 7.

The British Government has accepted the position with regard to the support of China as set forth in the report and resolution before the League of Nations' Council, said Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, in the House of Commons yesterday in reply to a question by Mr. David Adams. Mr. Adams wished to know what was being done in regard to the latest League recommendations.

The British Government, said Mr. Butler, has done its best to fulfil its obligations under the resolution adopted by the Assembly Council, and it would continue to give sympathetic consideration to the requests of the Chinese Government in conformity with those resolutions.

PREJUDICE TO TRADE

Major H. A. Proctor asked whether steps could be taken to reduce the serious prejudice to international trade caused by hostilities in the Far East.

Mr. Oliver Stanley, President of the Board of Trade, in a written reply stated that the information at present available went to show that while the export of United Kingdom cotton goods to the Far East had undergone only a small decline since the outbreak of war, the exports of woollen and worsted yarns and other manufactured goods had suffered a serious setback.

The Government, he said, will use every opportunity available to take such steps as might be within their power towards the object which Major Proctor had in mind.—Reuter.

JEWISH DRIVERS KILLED

Haifa, Oct. 7.

Two drivers were killed and a third escaped when three Jewish lorries transporting vegetables from Syria were ambushed north of Acre yesterday. The lorries afterwards were burned.

A Jewish watchman in this city was shot and seriously wounded yesterday morning.—Reuter.

GORGEOUS GOWNS SEEN IN MANNEQUIN PARADE

Chinese Society Ladies Demonstrate Styles Of 3,000 Years

By Rosette

A buzz of excitement followed by a scramble for points of vantage greeted the announcement of the much-heralded mannequin parade, the highlight of the charity ball sponsored by the Hongkong Women's National Relief Association at the Hongkong Hotel last night.

Mrs. H. S. Wong portrayed Hsi-shih of the Chow Dynasty (800-200 B.C.) in the act of entertaining the King of Wu with a basket of wine.

She was dressed in a gown of yellow silk with shimmering blue flowers and a trailing white skirt, and her hair was a high coiffure with dangling pearls.

According to the legend, the King of Yueh was heavily defeated in battle by the King of Wu, and his country was conquered. Knowing that his men were far inferior to those of his enemy, he resolved to win back his realm by other means so he sent, as a present to the victorious King, the beautiful Hsi-shih to captivate his heart. In this she was so entirely successful that, during the 20 subsequent years, the King of Wu was too infatuated with her to pay much attention to his army. Meanwhile, the King of Yueh made use of all those years to train an efficient army and had little difficulty in disposing of his enemy and bringing Hsi-shih back.

The second mannequin was Miss Doris Louey who played the part of Wang Chao-chuan as she was proceeding to the enemy's camp fully attired in a peacock blue satin gown embroidered with silver flowers.

WOMAN WARRIOR'S having a hood and cape, of the same colour, beneath which she wore a pale green skirt. In her arms she held a musical instrument, the "pei-pa." Without doubt, her dress, for all its plainness, was by far the most outstanding on parade.

Wang Chao-chuan lived in the late Han dynasty (200 B.C.-200 A.D.) and was one of the beauties chosen for the King's court. A lovely picture of her fell into the hands of the Tartars who were invading the country. Their chief was so infatuated by her peerless loveliness that he demanded her as his price for peace. It was believed that while in captivity she finally drowned herself in the river and her corpse floated back to her homeland. Not forgetting her noble sacrifice, the King had a tomb erected in her commemoration.

Miss Elsie Lee Soong appeared as Hua Mu-lan of the Han dynasty, the legendary Joan of Arc of China. She was garbed in white armour with black embroidered flowers, white tassels and flags of the same shade decorated her head-dress making her appear fiery and awe-inspiring.

Hua Mu-lan, the beloved granddaughter of a great warrior, was very well versed in the use of archery. One day, while reading over the Empress' edict, she learned that her aged grandfather had to lead a large army into battle.

Twelve Knowing well that he was too old for this task, she took upon herself to fight for him. Disguised as a man, she fought and toiled beside her fellow-soldiers for 12 years finally leading her army to victory, and not until she had reached home did she reveal that she was, after all, only a woman.

Sable Cicada, another historical figure of the late Han dynasty (100-200 A.D.), was charmingly enacted by Miss Y. (Rosabelle) Shu, who wore a green satin gown embroidered with flowers of all hues. Her skirt was quite a novelty, with many green tapes hanging down. Her head-dress, however, was very simple, with only a few flowers dotted here and there.

The legend of Sable Cicada is well-known to Chinese and Europeans alike. Sable Cicada, adopted daughter of Wan Yun, a high official, was made use of to bring about the downfall of Tung Chuh, the prime minister, who was plotting against the King. In order to protect the throne, Wan Yun schemed to betroth his daughter to both the prime minister and his oster son, Lu-t'po, who was a brave warrior. Sable Cicada succeeded in playing her part so well that she created a feud between father and son which ended in the death of Tung Chuh at the hands of his son. Thus the throne was saved.

With hair streaming behind, Miss Edith Blen gave a flawless portrayal of Slei Dao-yuen, a talented musician and successful writer of the Tsin Dynasty (200-600 A.D.). Miss Blen wore a green dress with embroidered flowers and a white skirt.

The colourful figure of Yeung Kwai-fel of the Tang Dynasty lived again in the person of Miss Diana Chung. Imitating to perfection the graceful carriage of mediaeval China, coupled with the supple movements of her limbs, she held the audience spell-bound. She had on an elaborate head-dress with strings of pearls framing her face and reaching down over her gorgeous red robe, the effect of which lent a serenity to her already classic features. For sheer grandeur, her costume surpassed all others on parade.

Yeung Kwai-fel, born of common parentage, was chosen for her remarkable beauty to the court of Emperor Tang and immediately became his favourite. She became the power behind the throne and was generally disliked, so much so that when On Lu-san, rebellious minister, threatened to dethrone the Emperor, the soldiers refused to fight until Kwai Fel had been put to death. Torn between his ardent love for her and his anxiety to save the kingdom, the Emperor gave in to the demand and, while he hid his face in the broad folds of his sleeve, Kwai Fel hung herself in front of his mount at the slope of Ma Tu.

Miss Ruby Lum as Leung Hung-yu made her appearance attended by two maids, who carried her spears. This is another historical figure of a woman-warrior who helped her husband in defeating a superior army. In the time of the Sung dynasty—Ching Wan-hsueh, a great Tartar prince, led his well-trained troops across the river to invade the country of the Sung.

Then, at last, was shown a costume nearer to what we are wearing to-day. Miss Lillian Wu appeared in a three-quarter length frock with sleeves up to the elbow. She chose violet and black as her colour scheme. The change in the hair dress was most conspicuous: for the first time the conventional bun had been discarded for the permanent wave. This was the fashion of 1931.

The "kwa," the ceremonial costume, first appeared with the advent of the Ching Dynasty (1644-1912), and despite the passing of centuries and the influence of the West, has lost none of its popularity. Miss May Lai, wearing the conventional red broad-based skirt and black broad-based dress, looked so graceful that she resembled every inch a blushing Chinese bride.

Mrs. Julia Wan was in an evening gown of the latest creation—a complete foreign evening dress but for the collar of pink organdie with puff sleeves and a trailing skirt. She had a black ribbon sash and a flower round her waist and another perched on her head.

Another modern frock seen every day in the street was worn by Miss Jenny Wong. Hers was a simple long gown of green and silver with a bolero to match.

The climax of a highly entertaining evening was reached when Miss Lee Ya-ching, the aviatrix, appeared on the floor in a gown of futuristic design. She was dressed in a streamlined creation of brown with designs of phoenix and dragons, which left the assembly gasping with amazement.

A prolonged burst of applause marked the end of the most successful mannequin parade ever staged in this Colony.

bun which was encircled with flowers.

Miss Anita Ma was attired in a flowing red gown with wide white sleeves, showing the fashion of the tenth year of the Republic (1921). This was the first time in which a one-piece costume made its appearance. It is noteworthy that the one-piece costume did not catch on until much later.

The next to appear was Miss Elsie Lee, dressed in the fashion of 1924, a long skirt and a short dress with wide sleeves. Her hair was done up into a bun at the back, and she wore long diamond earrings.

Then, at last, was shown a costume nearer to what we are wearing to-day. Miss Lillian Wu appeared in a three-quarter length frock with sleeves up to the elbow. She chose violet and black as her colour scheme.

PERMANENT WAVE APPEARS

The change in the hair dress was most conspicuous: for the first time the conventional bun had been discarded for the permanent wave. This was the fashion of 1931.

Mr. A. Gleson, assistant manager of the Peninsula Hotel, spent the month of September in Japan and Shanghai, returning several days ago in the s.s. Carthage.

To-morrow afternoon, at the Peninsula Hotel, Mrs. R. V. Gardiner will entertain a group of young friends of her son, Bobby, in celebration of his birthday.

Due to Monday (Double Tenth) being a general holiday there will be no rehearsal for the Hongkong Philharmonic Society's production of "Ruddigore" on that date.

His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, will dine with Group Captain A. H. Peck, D. S. O., M. C., and officers of the Royal Air Force at Kai Tak on Monday.

The forthcoming wedding of Mr. Joseph Jacob Edgar, well-known sharebroker, to Mrs. Lillian Charlton, nee Murray, at present en route to the Colony on the Conte Blancamano, is announced.

On the Double Tenth a representative group of Canton people will call on the wounded Chinese soldiers at the Military Hospital to extend comfort to them.

Chinese women in Canton are establishing various places for the making of winter clothing for the Chinese soldiers at the front, and funds are being solicited for the work.

Squadron Leader R. C. Keary and Mr. Wai Po-cheung of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist were passengers for Singapore and Bangkok respectively by the Imperial Airways plane, Delphinus, yesterday. The plane also carried 402.003 kilos of mail and 38.028 kilos of freight.

ART EXHIBITION

An art exhibition by Prof. Fu Le-fu will be held at the Kam Lung Restaurant, 490 Queen's Road West, from to-day till next Tuesday. The exhibition is sponsored by Mr. T. V. Soong, General Wu Teh-chen, Admiral Chan Chak, Hon. Sir Shouson Chow and many other friends of Prof. Fu.

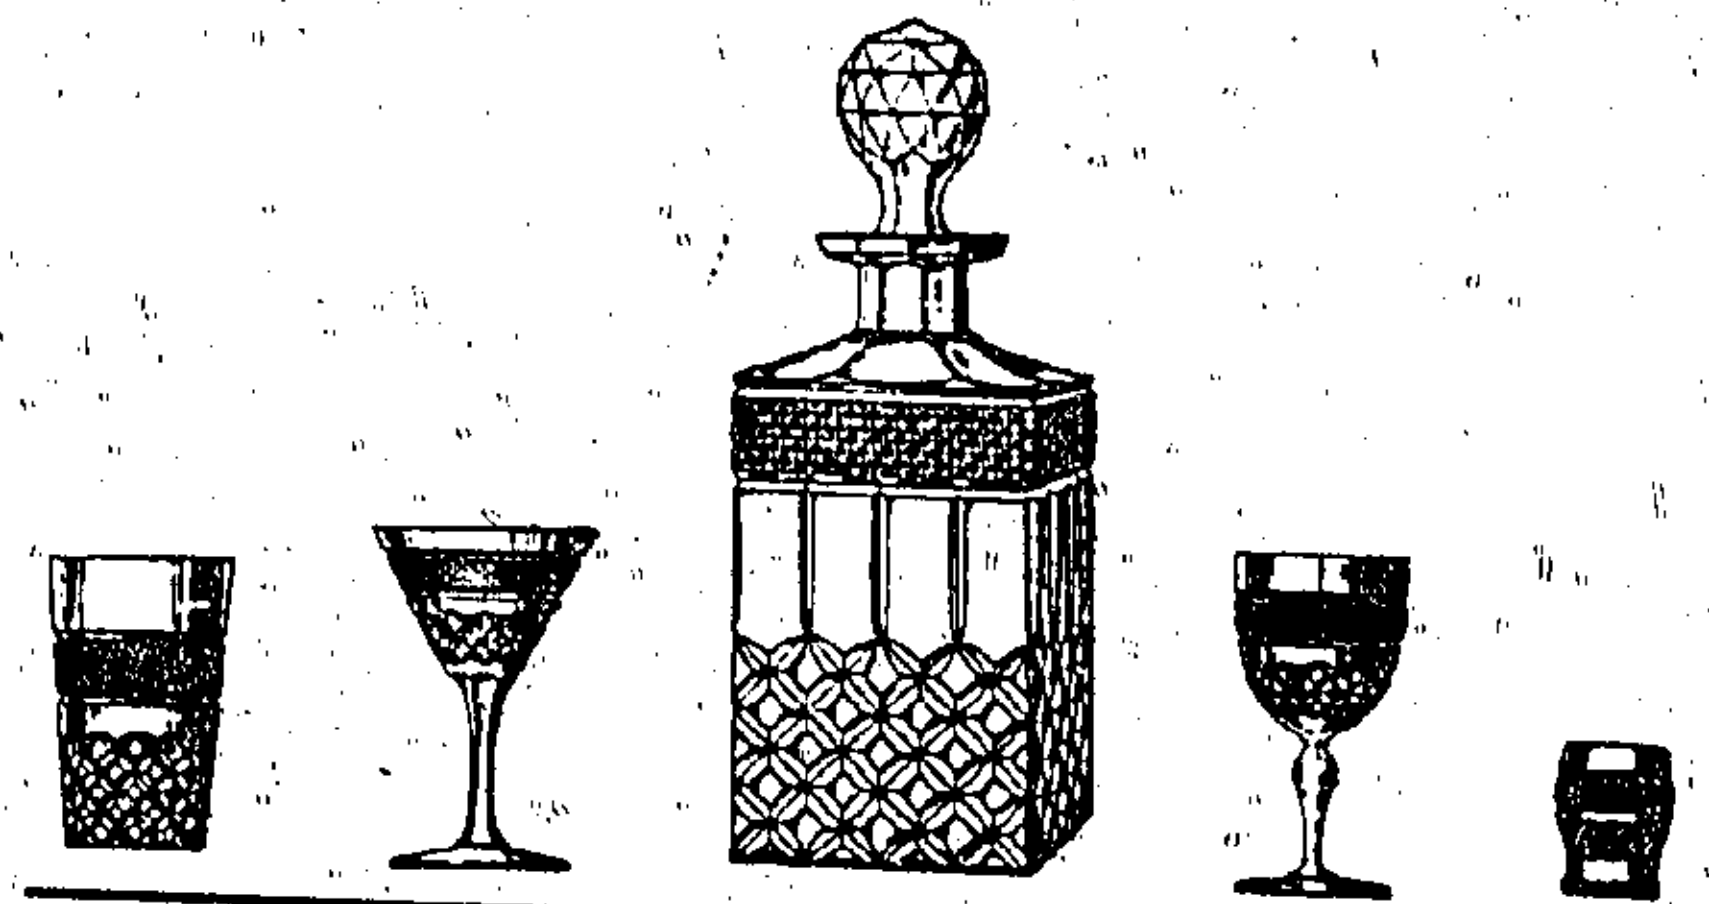

Prof. Fu, who only recently returned from Italy, is generally regarded as one who has successfully brought eastern mysticism and symbolism into the realistic setting of western painting, enriching the latter profusely.

UNION CHURCH DOUBLE TENTH WEDDING OBSERVATION

Mr. G.L. Angus And Miss H. Prescott

The wedding of Mr. G. L. Angus, of the China Light and Power Company Ltd., and Miss H. Prescott, of the Medical Department, Hongkong Government, took place at the Kowloon Union Church yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Sandbach.

The bride wore a white chiffon gown with a sheared bodice and short sleeves. A shoulder length tulle veil was attached to a charming, unusual cap of white flowers. White lace gloves completed the bridal costume. Miss K. Trickett, who attended the bride, was attired in a robin blue organza and taffeta dress. She carried a bouquet of peach and pink gladioli.

Mr. H. A. Angus, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Peninsula Hotel at which many friends were present. The honeymoon is being spent at Repulse Bay.

REGISTRY WEDDING

Simple Ceremonies In Colony

GATHERINGS AT CHINESE Y.M.C.A.

Double Tenth this year will not be celebrated with all its splendour as in the past, when China was not in the throes of hostilities. Similar to last year, the Chinese National Day will be commemorated with brevity and solemnity, and the celebration will be quietly observed by the various organisations in Hongkong, to mark the importance of the day and the sacrifice of the Chinese soldiers at the front.

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce, it is learned, will hold a simple meeting, during which the Chairman, Mr. Li Sing-ku, will give an address before a gathering of prominent local business men. Prior to the meeting there will be a ceremony of handing over an ambulance to a representative of the Chinese Red Cross Association, which has been donated by the Chamber.

The Chinese Club members will also hold a meeting, and it is understood that the Club is contributing the entire expenses of the day to the China war chest. Mr. C. Y. Kwan, chairman of the committee, will speak.

The Chinese Young Men's Christian Association, both in Hongkong and Kowloon, will celebrate the occasion on a more elaborate scale. The many groups of the Association, members of which will total over 2,000, will gather together in the Kowloon branch in the morning.

There will be a breaking of the Chinese "Red, White and Blue" at the commencement of the commemoration. Mr. Leung Sin-choi, chairman of all Chinese Y.M.C.A.s, will address the gathering.

At the conclusion, a small scale "Offer Gold" campaign will be launched. The Women's Soldiers' Relief Association, not forgetting the part they are playing, will start the day with the sale of flags to collect funds for war relief work.

TRAFFIC OFFENCES

Mrs. R. E. Shakespeare, residing at No. 49, Stubbs Road, was fined $5 by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Court yesterday when she appeared on a summons for leaving her car unattended in Queen's Road Central on September 24.

Pleading guilty to a similar offence through a representative, W. M. Barton, of Dowell and Company, was fined $5.

For causing an obstruction by parking his car in D'Agular Street on September 26, J. G. Forbes, of Repulse Bay Hotel, was fined $5.

RAINFALL FIGURES
As a result of yesterday's rainfall, which was heaviest between 2 a.m. and 10 a.m., the year's total has been increased to 54 inches, but as this compares with an average of just under 80 inches, it can hardly be called entirely satisfactory.

Nevertheless, the reservoirs have benefited much, and a continuation of the present weather should bring their capacity to over 50 per cent., a mark which has not been touched for some time.

CHINESE LEADER AS EVANGELIST

Chang Chih-kiang To Give Addresses

General Chang Chih-kiang, one of the most distinguished of China's Christian military leaders, has agreed to address a series of evangelic meetings this month at the Baptist Church in Caine Road and at the Baptist Church, 9 Boundary Road, Kowloon City.

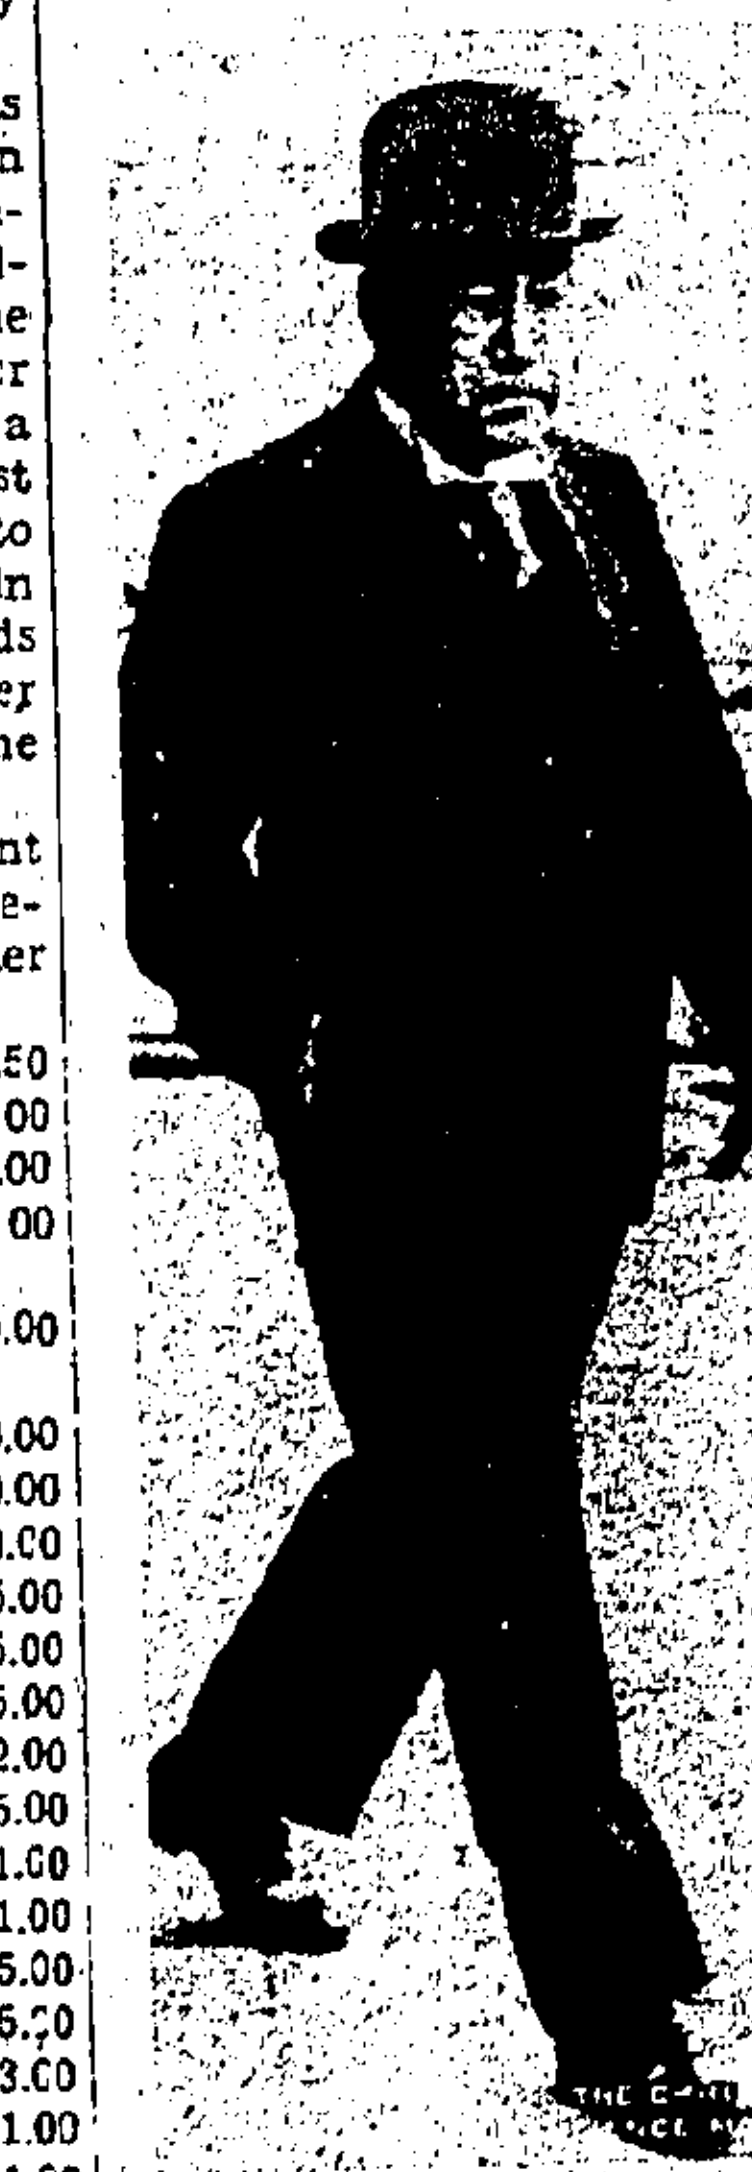

The addresses at the former church will take place nightly from October 5 to 9 and in the latter from October 11 to 15. Meetings will commence each evening at 7.30 o'clock.

General Chang became a Christian nearly twenty years ago and has, since that time, been an enthusiastic follower of the church. As a leading general in the Kuomintang, the "People's Army" under the command of Marshal Feng Yu-shiang (the "Christian General"), General Chang, following his graduation from the Pao-tung Military College, succeeded his chief as leader of the Kuomintang in 1924 and soon afterwards was made Tapan (Military Director-General) of the North-Western Provinces. He and his army remained in Kansu, Suiyuan and Ninghsia all the time that Marshal Wu Pei-fu remained in power and while the late Marshal Chang Tso-lin ruled Peking.

EXPERT BOXER
In 1926, when the Nationalists started the Anti-Northern Expedition, General Chang also moved his troops and rallied to the banner of the Kuomintang.

He remained in the army for several years after that and then retired. Since that time, he has continually served the Central Government and has been devoting his energies to the spread of the Christian religion and to the promotion of physical education and Chinese boxing, a science in which he is very adept.

RECALLED

STOLE THERMOS FLASKS

Pleading guilty to the theft of two thermos flasks and a silver cap Road, Tsui Chang, 25, was sentenced to four months imprisonment by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Court yesterday.

Defendant was seen entering the premises by a girl who informed the occupant of the house and he was arrested. It was later found that defendant had stolen the articles on an earlier visit.

WAR RISK RATES NOW LOWER

No Change Expected For Some Time

War risk rates are way back where they were in June. When the scare was at its worst, the rate outwards to Europe rose up to five per cent., but now it is back at the normal 3/8th per cent. Unless there is any further disturbance or a hitch in the arrangements now being made I do not think there will be any change for some time.

These remarks, reassuring to shipping and other commercial men, were made by the manager of a well-known insurance corporation in an interview with the "Daily Press" yesterday. This 3/8th per cent., applied to voyages outward from Hongkong to the United Kingdom or Continent, except Spain, the Black Sea or the Baltic Sea.

Additional for passing through the Mediterranean south or west of a line cete Malta and Tripoli, additional for the Baltic is 1/4 per cent. Voyages to the United States are 1/8 per cent.; other voyages ex Europe via the Mediterranean are 1/8 per cent.; additional for calling at all China ports ex Hongkong, 1/4 per cent.; local voyages to and from China ports 1/4 per cent.

The rates from Europe to Hongkong are slightly cheaper than vice versa because on the outward trip only a few days are spent passing Spain.

kindly arranged to make all necessary arrangements.

Air Raid Precautions Officer. A. H. S. STEELE-PERKINS, Hongkong, October 7.

BLIND GIRLS' PICNIC

(The Editor, "Hongkong Daily Press")

Sir,—May I through your columns, gratefully express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all those who so kindly contributed to the success of the twelfth annual outing on Saturday, October 1, by donations, loans of cars and gifts.

The response to our appeal has been most generous, so that, in addition to the outing, refreshments and gifts of towels, handkerchiefs and soap to each of the 65 girls of the Industrial Home for Blind Girls, Pokfulam, and a special supper of chicken and roast pork, we are able to hand over to Miss Moritz, the Superintendent in charge of the Home, enough funds to purchase new dresses and other necessities for the girls for the coming Chinese New Year.

Since our last acknowledgment of the sum of $205.50, we have received the following further donations:

Previously acknowledged	$205.50
Mrs. B. Fant	5.00
D. P. M.	10.00

Messrs. Pohomull Bros.	10.00
Messrs. K. S. Pavri	23.00
Messrs. W. Assomull	5.00
Honkong Silk Store	5.00
Bombay Silk Store	5.00
Mecca Silk Store	2.00
Dholera Steamship Co.	5.00
K. K. K.	1.00
H. H. H.	1.00
"Well Wisher"	25.00
Mrs. Chan	5.00
Mrs. A. E. P. Guest	3.00
F. A. M.	1.00
"Min"	1.00
O. Nejat	3.00
Total	$354.50

Offers of loan of cars:—Previously acknowledged, 16. Hongkong & Shanghai Hotels, 1 bus.

Expenses for the outing totalled $62.00, thus leaving a balance of $292.50.

Our thanks are also due to Mr. M. R. Deb for invaluable help, Mr. B. C. Randall and the Flying Squad as escort for the afternoon, Mr. G. D. Woolgar, The Shek-O Club, Dr. & Mrs. T. Y. Li, Hongkong and Shanghai Hotels, Messrs. Jardine Matheson & Co. Ltd., the Blue Bird Cafe, On Lok Yuen Co. Ltd., and others, for services rendered.

"We also wish to express our thanks to the Press for the publicity afforded to our appeal and the acknowledgments published in their papers from time to time, and in conclusion, would like to thank all those who so kindly gave up their time and assisted at the outing; their help has been indispensable."

(Mrs.) GERTRUDE GODDARD, Hon. Group Secretary, Christ Church Group, V.D.M.A. Hongkong, October 6.

CORRESPONDENCE

TUNG WAH HOSPITAL

Unauthorized Collectors: Receipts Forged

(The Editor, "Hongkong Daily Press")

Sir,—May I be permitted through your esteemed paper to inform the public of a serious incident alleged to have occurred in our midst.

It has been brought to my notice that certain unauthorised persons have been soliciting and collecting subscriptions from house to house in the name of the Tung Wah Hospital, and, in respect of such subscriptions, receipts have actually been issued, bearing a rubber chop, purporting to be that of the Tung Wah Hospital Corporation.

I am directed by the board of directors of the Tung Wah Hospital Corporation to notify the public that these persons have no authority whatsoever to solicit or collect any subscription on behalf of our hospital, and that the receipts which they have issued (specimen of which is herein shown) are forgeries.

I wish to add that, as a matter of old established custom, we do, from time to time, dispatch members of our hospital staff to invite and collect donations from house to house. In the course of carrying out such a practice, however, we authorise no persons other than members of our hospital staff who are invariably accompanied by a uniformed district watchman, thanks to the courtesy of the Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

I am also directed to invite the co-operation of the public to assist in stopping this fraud by informing the police at once, should these delinquents attempt to solicit or collect donations in the name of the Tung Wah Hospital.

CHAU SHIU NG, Chairman of Board of Directors, Tung Wah Hospital, Hongkong, October 7.

VOLUNTARY A.R.P. SERVICE APPEAL

Sir,—May I, through your courtesy, state that should a state of emergency ever arise a number of European men would be required for voluntary service in the A.R.P. organisation.

The most urgent need at the moment is to obtain and train in anti-gas precautions volunteers for the following A.R.P. services:—
Air Raid Wardens. Their duties would be to assist and advise the general public on all matters connected with Air Raid Precautions, and also to carry out the duties of reporting agents in regard to any damage, etc. which might occur in their sector as a result of air attack.

Decontamination Squads. Their duties would consist of decontaminating any areas which might be contaminated as a direct result of the use of persistent gases.

First Aid Personnel. For duty in the Air Raid Precaution Casualty Services.

The Deputy Superintendent of the Police Reserve has very kindly arranged to place his headquarters at my disposal, and it is proposed to commence a full course of anti-gas training (14-15 hours) covering all the above mentioned A.R.P. services.

It should be noted that persons who have already been earmarked for Military duties, or are key men in essential or vital services, are of necessity excluded from volunteering for any A.R.P. services.

As accommodation is limited, will those who are willing to undergo a course of training and to offer their services to the Government in time of emergency, kindly forward their names to Mr. C. Champkin, c/o Hongkong Club, who has respectively.

POWERS AT ODDS

THE PUBLIC AWAITS with keen interest the reply of Mr. R. Edwards, Magistrate, to the criticisms of Mr. John Whyatt, the Crown Counsel, to his decision to exclude the public, but not the press from a preliminary hearing in the Central Court in which an unemployed Chinese was charged with the murder of a compatriot.

Considerable attention has been drawn to this case in view of the singular nature of the decision. As the Magistrate pointed out, his decision was unusual but not unprecedented. With the various aspects of the case before the court, we do not, of course, propose to deal as the matter remains sub judice.

On September 30, Mr. Edwards explained his reasons for excluding the public, but not the press, in a written statement which was read out in court, and, on Monday, Mr. Whyatt criticised the action.

IN HIS STATEMENT, Mr. Edwards, basing his decision on sec. 74 of the Magistrates' Ordinance of 1932, said that he was exercising his discretion in the interests of the accused man, who was not represented by counsel. He expressed the view that, as the case was one likely to achieve a substantial measure of publicity, it was, only in fairness to accused that, if he is to be committed to trial, his jurors should not be acquainted with any prejudicial details of the case even before they began to hear the evidence in the Supreme Court.

Mr. Whyatt, in a lengthy submission, stated that the ruling would be regarded not only as unusual but revolutionary. It was (counsel said, quoting the Lord Shaw) an impairment of right, which would be intolerable UNUSUAL AND IN A FREE COUNTRY REVOLUTIONARY try and "I do not think it has any warrant in our law." He asserted that, with regard to the exemption of the press, the press had no more right to be present in court than any members of the public.

Mr. Whyatt said that the term "Press Co-operation" lacked a clarity and position of definition. Did it mean, he asked, that the press should report only what the magistrate permitted them to report? Did it mean that the press must suppress the report on request of the magistrate, otherwise "out they go?" If it did, Mr. Whyatt continued, "it constituted the suggestion of an insidious inroad into the liberty of the press which has no warrant, for there is no authority in English law."

ENGLISH JUSTICE, he averred, must be administered in open court. "Every court of justice is open to every subject of the King. It is a constitutional right and a constitutional liberty, and it is a priceless inheritance of the public."

Where there is no publicity, there is no justice and publicity is justice. It needs a statute if a distinction is to be drawn between the public and the press."

We have no intention of taking sides in this controversy, which has brought several important points of considerable interest. We have no wish to "back the winner" and shall simply content ourselves with saying that the public, and the press none the less, will await with keen interest a definite ruling in the matter, especially in view of the question which remains at stake so far as the press is concerned.

IMPORTING SILVER INTO COLONY

The case against Ma Kam-chiu, 26, and Chau Chi-fan, 22, charged with importing silver into the Colony by the Empress of the Company, will be heard by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Court on Tuesday afternoon.

Revenue Officer E. T. Warden will prosecute, while Mr. M. W. Lo will appear for the defence. Defendants were allowed bail of $500 and $250 respectively.

THREE SOFTBALL GAMES FOR WEEK-END

English Forum Team Will Be Much Weakened

(BY R. O. Y.)

Four of the six softball teams who have engagements for to-morrow, will be making their first appearance of the season. The results of these games, to be played on the C. B. A. ground, should give some indication of how the league table will appear at the end of the season.

The Central British Association versus H. K. English Forum game has been put forward to 11 a.m., and is expected to be a very close game. Comparing this year's line-ups with last season's teams, the C. B. A., with Stan MacNider pitching in improved form, and Tom Whitley having added efficiency behind the plate, will be considerably stronger, having had the benefit of a season's experience.

On the other hand, the Forum are expected to be much weaker, having lost three of their outstanding players of last year. They are going to find it extremely difficult to replace adequately the positions left vacant by Tuffy Chinn, Wally Ching and Sammy Wong who will appear with other teams.

At 1.45 p.m., Club de Recreo will play the Chinese Baseball Club in what promises to be the best game of the day. The Chinese, having the strongest battery in the league, Tuffy Chinn and Nip Lam, should register their first win without much difficulty.

Manager Barros intimates that his team may not be at full strength, owing to some of his players spending the holidays in Macao, but even so, they are quite capable of causing an upset, as witness their unexpected baseball victory over the local league champions.

MIDGETS SHOULD WIN

In the last game of the day, the Midgets should prove to be much too strong for the Canadian Chinese, but it will be extremely interesting to see Hurler Herbie Quon in action against his former teammates. The Canadian gang will be up against the speediest pitcher in Hongkong, but feel confident that they know the answer to whatever is served up. Sammy Wong, Quon's battery mate, is just as confident that the end of the game will see a new local knockout.

SHARP REDUCTIONS

IN WAR RISKS

London, Oct. 7.

A further relaxation of the tension in the international situation is illustrated by last night's list of minimum war risk insurance rates covering specie.

The rates show sharp reductions from those ruling previously, the heaviest drops being from the United Kingdom to the Continent and for seaborne specie to the Straits Settlement, and Netherlands Indies.The outward rates to Hongkong,

 China and Japan are three shillings and five shillings, compared to 80 and 80 shillings.By air the rates are now half a crown to the Straits and Hongkong or return, compared with 20 shillings per cent. a short time ago.

C.B.A. TEAMS FOR TO-MORROW

The following have been selected to represent the C.B.A. "Hot Dogs" at softball against the Forum at 11 a.m. to-morrow on the C.B.A. ground, King's Park:—G. Gurevitch, S. MacNider, J. Higgins, Bauch, W. Muir, T.S.D. Whitley, G. Fowler, D. Blake, M. Manning, J.J. King, C. Spradbury and F. Angus.

HEROIN CHARGE

Appearing on remand before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday on a charge of possession of 21,800 heroin pills in a house in First Street, a Chinese constable, Yip Kam-pui, Chan Chik and Li Ming, were committed to stand trial at the Criminal Sessions.

Mr. J. B. Prentiss, Assistant Crown Solicitor, prosecuted.

COMMITTED TO SESSIONS

Ho Tai-po, Shek Wal-kwan, and Li Lam were committed to stand their trial at the next criminal sessions on charges arising from an acid-throwing incident at Shinghai Street on September 4, by Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday.

Li Lam, who claims to have been a soldier in the Canton Army, is charged with throwing a corrosive fluid at a woman, Yu Tak-chen, the other two men being charged with being accessories to the fact of the throwing.

Det. Sub-insp. C. Mottram prosecuted.

CHARITY BALL

certained, but it is confidently hoped that the sum total will equal or even exceed expectations.

In this respect the charming and very hard-working young ladies who "patrolled" the entrance and lobby of the Hotel deserve unstinting praise.

Most of the guests had arrived by nine o'clock. Madame T.V. Soong and party driving up at about 8.30. The sister-in-law of China's first lady wore a white dress with black stripes and red flowers, and was accompanied by her sister, Miss Marie Chang. Mr. Li Tsung-fong, manager of the Bank of East Asia, with his wife and daughter, were also early arrivals.

Later we noticed at Madame Soong's table Madame Wu, wife of the Governor of Canton, Mrs. En Tong-sen, and Mrs. Arthur Wood, among others.

Other parties were those of Mr. K. C. Tsang, manager of the Manufacturers Bank of China, and his wife, Madame Liu Mrs. Fung Ping fan and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wan.

PARADE OF FASHION

In a parade of fashion such as this was, it is impossible, with so little time before going to press, to give a description of more than one or two outstanding dresses, and, without being invidious, we will now only draw attention to Miss Betty Pestonji, daughter of the well-known broker, and Miss Lee Yee-hin.

Miss Pestonji wore a white printed evening gown with a long red cape, the very simplicity of which was its strong point, while Miss Lee's period pink gown, cut low and with bare shoulders, was helped in its striking attractiveness by a string of pearl necklaces and a posy of flowers.

Once again lack of space and time prevents a detailed write-up of the excellent floor entertainment, but mention must be made of Miss Nee-sa Long, whose numbers met with thunderous applause. She first sang "Love is Like a Cigarette," "Putting it over" as a "torch" song, and later "Did a specialty dance, which included a lot of high kicks and cartwheels.

Dancing continued till the small hours of this morning, neither musicians nor dancers showing any signs of abatement of enthusiasm. Talking of dancing reminds us that high praise is due to those enterprising ladies who sold dances for solid cash, and not inconsiderable sums either, also to those gentlemen who so willingly and cheerfully paid—all in the sweet cause of charity.

Mr. Shields Elected To Council

In seconding the nomination, the Hon. Mr. Stanley H. Dodwell said that he had no hesitation in doing this because, as they would all agree, from the point of view of long association with the Colony, his interest in its welfare and particularly his interest in the welfare in the Chamber, Mr. Shields would serve them as well in the capacity of permanent representative as he had done as their temporary representative (Applause).

The motion was then put to the Meeting by the Vice-Chairman of the Chamber, Mr. T. E. Pearce, and carried unanimously.

Mr. Shields thanked the proposer and seconder for their remarks and the members of the Chamber for the extension of their confidence. He would do all he could on their behalf and very much appreciated the honour.

SHANGHAI MURDER

It will be recalled that on September 30, Miss Wexler and Capt. Smyth were to have tea together.

Earlier in the evening Captain Smyth telephoned to his flat to tell Miss Wexler, with whom he had made an appointment, that he would be a little late. He was unable to obtain a reply to the telephone call.

On arriving at his flat, a short time later, Captain Smyth was unable to gain entrance and after finally opening the door with the aid of the watchman he found Miss Wexler's body slumped in a chair. — Reuter and Special.
